

Guess I Just Lost My Head

Karen Carpenter

I really don't mean to stare
I was only trying to memorise you there
You know I meant no harm
It's just that the starlight in your eye
Gave me a chill, nearly made me cry

I'm sure it's very clear I don't know what's going down
You're going to ruin this poor girl from out of town
I like the way you move so much that

I guess I just lost my head
I know we should really know much better
I guess I just lost my head
I know we don't really know each other
So pardon the things I said
Won't you tell me you'll forgive me?

I don't mean to intrude
It's just that I don't want to break this mood
(Don't want to break this mood here tonight)
And if I hold your hand it's just 'cause
There's something in the things you say
That wraps me up and really puts me away

But everybody knows I don't know what's going down
You're going to ruin this poor girl from out of town
I like the way you move so much that

I guess I just lost my head
I know we should really know much better
I guess I just lost my head
I know we don't really know each other
So pardon the things I said
Won't you tell me you'll forgive me?

I don't know what's going down
You're going to ruin this poor girl from out of town
I like the way you move so much that

I guess I just lost my head
I know we should really know much better
I guess I just lost my head
I know we don't really know each other
So pardon the things I said
Won't you tell me you'll forgive me?

I've got the feeling inside and I love you
I need your loving tonight

Guess I lost it
Guess I lost it

I guess I just lost my head
I know we should really know much better
I guess I just lost my head
I know we don't really know each other
So pardon the things I said

Won't you tell me you'll forgive me?
'Cause you've been making me crazy
