

One Desire

Kari Jobe

Here I am
Just for You, only You
Here I stand
Wanting You, only You

In Your presence, Lord
I will find my strength
You're the breath in me
You're my everything
With my heart bowed low
and my hands held high
All consuming fire
You're my one desire

Your Name, oh, Your Name
Let it stay on my lips
I will seek Your face
God, it's You, only You

In Your presence, Lord
I will find my strength
You're the breath in me
You're my everything
With my heart bowed low
and my hands held high
All consuming fire
You're my one desire

In Your presence, Lord
I will find my strength
You're the breath in me
You're my everything
With my heart bowed low
and my hands held high
All consuming fire
You're my one desire

It's You
God, It's You
It's You
Only You

My heart will always sing

I love You, I love You
My heart will always sing
I love You, I love You
My heart will always sing
I love You, I love You
My heart will always sing
I love You, I love You

In Your presence, Lord
I will find my strength

In Your presence, Lord
I will find my strength

It's You
God, it's You
It's You
Only You
Oh, it's You
God, it's You
It's You
Only You

It's You

My heart will always sing
I love You, I love You
My heart will always sing
I love You, I love You
My heart will always sing
I love You
