

Borrowing You

Kari Rueslåtten

Hey beautiful
can I have you for a while?
Here in my head you're the one

I never thought
I would find somebody like you
I never thought
you would come my way

Lending time, passing through all the seasons - borrowing you Setting sail, finding new distant shores - borrowing you I will go through it all if it makes you want me more

Hey beautiful
can't you see me as I stand right before you giving my heart

I touch my happiness
I can't remember how it was to live before you
I touch my blessedness I never thought I would find myself giving in

But, if you go - I go and if you stay so will I
If you go - I'll go, and you know I'll go with you
