

Denial

Kari Rueslåtten

what if i told you
straight to your face
nothing at all
cover it with make-up
hiding all the bruises
no one shall notice
no one shall know
why can't you hear me no more hear when i whisper your name hear why i feel so ashamed hear when i silence my tears what if i pointed
a gun to your head
what if i pulled the trigger you do deserve it
all the hurt you can get besides no one shall notice
no one shall know
