

Happy. Amused

Kari Rueslåtten

There was this girl that I just had to be and There was this world that I just had to see but I could not get away
I could not run away no I could not get away but still

She was not scared she knew wich [sic] way to go and If she just dared She would succeed and so she wanted it to be a special hide-away and she wanted it to be secret

I'm happy, amused and aware of everything waiting for me out there I'm happy, amused and aware
I don't need guidance - my vision is clear

And so she swam across the raging sea and now she is gone and all I see is myself I wanted it to be a special hide-away and I wanted it to be secret

All I can do is breath in
All I can do is begin
And I can see that I am not alone
All I can do is breath in
All I can do is begin
And I can see I am not the only one
