

Only you know

Kari Rueslåtten

So still in the deep
Waiting for you to sleep
So small, so small - fragile...

In the deep we're all alone
Fighting without a crowd
I know, I would if I could

I don't know what the future holds for us...
I don't know if I am your gain or loss
I sometimes hear you cry for the both of us
Only you, only you
Only you know if I am right for you

If I could, I would give up my life for you
So scared, I'll always be,
to disappoint you

I don't know what the future holds for us...
I don't know if I am your gain or loss
I sometimes hear you cry for the both of us
Only you, only you
Only you know if I am right for you
