

New Era

Karin Park

Either you are in or you're out This cannot be spoken about A boat (port) awaits to carry you Between all that you used to be and now I can see the scar on your chin You paint it white to cover it as if it was a sin No matter what your name has been before You have a new one now

It's unescapable It's a new era

The first time you will open the door The seal has not been broken before Put on your mother's coat that you've been hiding in your drawer for so long Cut your hair and wash your face and hands this is where you belong

It's unescapable It's a new era

Here comes a new era Here comes the new angels Here comes the new Jesus Here comes the new Judas Here comes the new power Here comes the new danger Here comes a new desperation

And it's unescapable It's unescapable It's a new era
