

Restless

Karin Park

Until I bleed, until I fall Until my thoughts have lost their cause
Until my eyes have lost their spark Until my love has lost its heart

Fall to feel the floor Call me ??? I'm coming back for more

Like a piouette has somewhere to go but doesn't know it yet

I am restless for you I am restless for you

Until the sadness covers me whole Until the plague has taken us all
Until the torture makes me confess Until my head is resting on your chest

It's about to fall No more news on the case of cannibals Is it just a game, bless you, take the bullet Blow the ball and chain

I am restless for you I am restless for you

So bring me light In the kaleidoscope Oh, all these mirrors I'm at the end of the rope

Take the money, spend Blood, shock, wound, attack and defend

It's a dog's fight Tick tack, trig trig the dynamite

I am restless for you Until I bleed, until I fall I am restless for you
Until my thoughts have lost their cause I am restless for you
Until my love has lost its heart
