

Can't Bring Me Down

Karina

I'm crying inside but filled up with pride
I won't let them see no tears in my eyes
I'm mad at the world, it can be so unfair
The judgment, the jealousy, still I'm not scared

I'm focused, determined, I'm ready to win
The critic I see, won't doubt me again
Darkness is gone, I'm ready to shine
Right now it's victory time

They can't bring me down, no
Test me, I know they will try
But they won't bring me down, no
I know what I'm made of inside

They can't bring me down, no
It ain't over until the last round
Will they bring me down? No
If I stumble I won't hit the ground
They can't bring me down
No me van a derrotar

My hearts beating hard, my adrenelines high
I'm raging like fire, I aim at the sky
'Cause I know what I want, I'll rewrite the rules
I know my value, I'm God's precious jewel

I've given my heart to the dream that I choose
It's time to turn back, I simply refuse
I'm flying high, over the wall
Try and catch me but I'll never fall

They can't bring me down, no
Test me, I know they will try
But they won't bring me down, no
I know what I'm made of inside

They can't bring me down, no
It ain't over until the last round
Will they bring me down? No
If I stumble I won't hit the ground
They can't bring me down
No me van a derrotar
They can't bring me down

They can't bring me down, no, no
Test me, I know they will try
But they won't bring me down, no
I know what I'm made of inside

They can't bring me down, no
It ain't over until the last round
They can't bring me down, no
If I stumble I won't hit the ground
They can't bring me down
