

Personally

Karla Bonoff

I've been writing letters everyday now since you've been gone Talking to you on the telephone for what seems like a whole life long

I've got something to give you that the mailman can't deliver
I can't mail it in
I can't phone it in
I can't send it in
even by your closest kin

I'm bringing it to you personally
Personally, personally yeah
I'm bringing it to you personally
Personally, personally yeah

There's nothing like the feeling I get oh when you touching me baby There's nothing like the feeling you get when I'm there with you, oh love

I've got something that the mailman can't deliver
I can't mail it in
I can't phone it in
I can't send it in
even by your closest kin

Ooh ooh, but I've got something to give ya
that the mailman can't deliver
I can't mail it in
I can't phone it in
I can't send it in
