

The Spirit Remains The Same

Karmakanic

One more step closer to death
One more step closer to life

If I die tomorrow, I must live today
If my heart's full of sorrow, I just blow it away
Take love from my soul and sacrifice my name...
But the spirit remains the same

Feeling low but flying so high
High above stars in the sky

If I die tomorrow, I must live today
If my heart's full of sorrow, I just blow it away
Take love from my soul and sacrifice my name...
But the spirit remains the same
