

You said "Just show me what you wanna be, I will never stand in your way", take it back and then you say again, "tell me what you wanna be , I will never stand in your way"

You know I sat here thinking just the other day, what it was you said to make me snap, you were always gonna be my friend, you're not the enemy, "I will never stand in your way"

Yeah but in my mind I see clearer

Take me back into the other day when I was so proud to hear myself.

You would slap me and I know this sucks, you're just the enemy,
"I will never stand in your way"

Yeah but in my mind I see clearer now, that I've found somewhere to rest my head

In time I guess this will fade
In time I guess this will fade

In time I guess this will fade
In time I guess this will fade

In time I guess this will fade
In time I guess this will fade

Slap me up again, just slap me up again (In time I guess this will fade)

Slap me up again, just slap slap me up again (In time I guess this will fade)

Slap me up again, just slap slap me up again (In time I guess this will fade)

Slap me up again, just slap slap me up again (In time I guess this will fade)

In time I guess this will fade
In time I guess this will fade
