

Fear of the Sky

Karnivool

In your own state of mind
All you fear now is won
A concious world will spin you in and out of time
Lend your breath to broken sail
Hands up in my blunted nail
Rolling water, suck her free
Surely I can make you feel

What I'm feeling, falling in
Comfort bleeds a swollen mend
In the secrecy that is to lie

Knowing in failure, will I forge the wrong sound?
Soon I see what they mean
Living this fallacy
Promised heaven, I concede

Dead, what I'm feeling, falling in
Comfort bleeds a swollen mend
In the secrecy that is to lie

Stare blind at the sun, feel the warmth in your eyes
With you in mind, with you in time
Stare blind at the sun, feel the warmth in your head

Dead, what I'm feeling, falling in
Comfort bleeds a swollen mend
In the secrecy that it's to lie
That is to lie

Stare blind at the sun, feel the warmth in your eyes
With you in mind, with you in time
Stare blind at the sun, feel the warmth in your head

Stare blind at the sun, feel the warmth in your eyes
With you in mind, with you in time
Stare blind at the sun, feel the warmth in your head

Stare blind at the sun, feel the warmth in your eyes
With you in mind, yeah with you in time
Stare blind at the sun, feel the warmth in your head
