

I'd Rather Be Alone

Karyn White

Mmm... mmm...

I don't wanna be a fool, I don't wanna be a fool for love
No, no, I won't, no
Hey, no, ooh...

I know that people do go through changes, yeah
But this just don't make no damn sense
If were gonna keep sayin we love one another, yeah, yeah
Well, then we better stop fightin and arguin

Cause baby, I've heard I'm sorry too many, many times before
Now I know better
It hurts to hold on to this kind of love even more
No, I'm not crazy

I won't be a fool, a fool for love
Cause I know I'd rather be alone than be here unhappy
I'm not gonna choose, choose for you
Cause I know I'd rather be alone than be here unhappy

I know it's time to go when I feel lonely
When I'm layin in your arms and it don't feel right, oh
Cause every time I feelin up you try to bring me down
So I feel good knowin I don't need you around

Cause I know, I know that I can feel this bad all by myself, hoo, yeah

And maybe that's my best bet
Startin this time I'm gonna think selfishly
And never depend on someone else for keepin me happy, oh, no, no

I won't be a fool, a fool for love
Cause I know I'd rather be alone than be here unhappy, oh, no
I'm not gonna choose, choose for you
Cause I know I'd rather be alone than be here unhappy, oh...

I-I-I-I won't be a fool, a fool for love
Cause I know I'd rather be alone than be here unhappy
I'm not gonna choose, choose for you
Cause I know I'd rather be alone than be here unhappy, ooh, yeah

I'm never gonna be a fool for love
Id rather be alone, just give it up
Don't make no sense to be in love
And be here unhappy, oh, no

It might feel good on a lonely night
But layin in your arms today ain't right
I'd rather lose you than lose my mind
And be here unhappy with you baby

Hey no, no, no, no, no, no
I don't wanna be a fool
I don't wanna be a fool
