

Do we have any punks in the house?
Yeah?
This next track's called 55

I was classic amused
I've been abused by the organ
I didn't know where to turn
So I see that round at their hearts
And pull me down my old friend
Cause I have lost my way

I stole the seats like a rack
Sequenced by the attack
Showed me the classes
You bring your blood cells down
I'll rip the new problem
The hearts sings around
And pull me down my old friend
Cause I have lost my way
I breathe still like a broad smile
And empires walk away

Do I hear no time to run
Seeing fire our death will come
Do I hear no time to run
Seeing fire our death will come
Do I hear no time to run
Seeing fire my life here all by myself
Shut up

Now this is just the beginning
Always knew I'd be quitting
It'll be your skies
(repeat)
Now this is just the beginning
(repeat)
Always knew I'd be quitting
It'll be your skies
