

Black Whistler

Kasabian

Two shots in the morning, take it easy on yourself
A banging head from yesterday
Pidgeons flap so freely, now the landlord kicks the door
Fetch your chair, it's not that hard

Cause we're so happy
I said we're happy at being sad

So wake up, oh wake up
Cause I don't wanna fight with you no more
Wake up, foh wake up
Well we'll forget about the jungle on the floor
We can forget about the jungle on the floor

Warmth is for my lover, and the other for my hate
I guess that really sums us up

Cause we're so happy
I said we're happy at being sad

So wake up, oh wake up
Cause I don't wanna fight with you no more
I said now wake up, oh wake up
Well we'll forget about the jungle on the floor
We can forget about the jungle on the floor
We can forget about the jungle on the floor
