A Million Tears

Kasey Chambers

Take my hand Break my stride Make me smile For everytime I've cried

Hold my heart In the palm of your hand Don't listen to it breakin' Just listen to the band

Do you wanna ride in my car Its parked out on the street Or just stay with me a while Before I fall asleep Take these tears Wash your skin I'm havin' trouble breathin' Since you walked in

My hands are tied My head is reelin' My eyes have cried A million tears From wishin' you were here

All my life I've welcomed pain I've made up more excuses To bring it back again

Now I'm here And I'll drink to the shame I'll drink to the madness That made me this way
