

It's Ok Now

Kashmir

You know what it means
That you'll soon be off
But you don't know where to,

And what comes before
You thought there'd be so much more
But the good films run out

Don't hang on
Just because you can
Now you must let go

As you fall astern
And we all prepare to yearn
For the one who once was

I'll think of the good
And work on the things we should,
Put an end to

Don't hang on
Just because you can
Now you must let go

Up somewhere
No place near
Far from here
I know that you are
