

Jewel Drop

Kashmir

...and in the corner of this room lucifer's now observing I'm swaggering past the wall of fiends surely it makes her nervous

What a grand spree just like the old times everyone is here

what's in the bag exchanging hands the actions are somewhat cloudy don't wanna know so let's just dance billy is screaming loudly

let's turn it 'round
bring ceilings down
and fall in love again.

Who was that actor next to her that everyone seems to know of an angel is whispering (well deserved) you made the choise to blow it all up that's a new dress she's heaven sent she wasn't sent for me

bring the ceilings down
