No Balance Palace

I wish I knew where This devious road ends Dog fights in the street lights or indifference? Death hangs patiently under the mirrorball And no one seems to notice him at all This room exudes with fast love and imagery, unflagging wished and jealousy Mike says it's okay We all need a break A grand spree we're on a roll here once again I wanna go When she says go Don't say where

Don't say where We don't want to know It's alright No one's lost I wanna rock Where you don't rock 'cause I can't feel you anymore It's alright Nothings lost

You are my song So empathetic and so strong You've waited forever And though you did quiver You came along
