

Broken Heart

Kasia Cerekwicka

I can't breathe
after all you said to me
just a while it took me to cry...

All these words
were so painful and so cold
now my heart is like broken glass...

I understood that I would never be a part of your life
and it's killing me inside...

so goodbye,
you will always be the greatest thing that happened in my life.

You're too blind
to see I'm the only woman who will never pass you by;
I won't die
I will stay alive until I keep the faith that you'll be mine;
I will survive,
with my broken heart...

Now I know
I must learn to live alone...
Never fall without you by my side,
without you on my mind.

You must realize -
being friends couldn't make me strong enough
when she's with you high above...

so goodbye,
you will always be the greatest thing that happened in my life.
You're too blind
to see I'm the only woman who will never pass you by;
I won't die
I will stay alive until I keep the faith that you'll be mine;
I will survive,
without you by my side...

You could have had so much
you threw my love away
and now look what you've got...
I gave you all I had, you should have love me in return...

so goodbye,
I will always be the greatest thing that happened in your life.
You're too blind
to see I'm the only woman who will never pass you by;
I won't die
I will stay alive until I keep the faith that you'll be mine;
I will survive,
with my broken heart...
