In This Life

So softly

Your love is so true I never thought that I would find you So sweet, so fine Sunshine, you're so much more to me than

I ever dreamed that could be possible In this life, and when you touch me It's more that just a feeling It's love, it's love, so lovely

So softly

This dream we share I hope you know I want you always there To have, to hold Pure gold, you're so much more to me than

I ever dreamed that could be possible In this life, and when you touch me It's more that just a feeling It's love, it's love, so lovely

You're so much more to me than

I ever dreamed that could be possible In this life, and when you touch me It's more that just a feeling It's love

So much more to me than

I ever dreamed that could be possible In this life, and when you touch me It's more that just a feeling It's love, it's love, so lovely

So softly

In this life

Look I need to explain myself Let you know now exactly how I'm feeling
