

Tonight

Kaskade

No one from the start now look where we are
A look on your face makes me want to stay
Apart from so sweet, a head to your feet
Apart from what's right tonight, tonight

Let's try to know
That you're the good so we can show
Just take the time
So we will know just what we like
The time it takes

For everyone here just make one thing clear
Tell your only one that have you have just begun
The time that you take, the love that you make
Yeah, you know what's right 'cause tonight, tonight

Let's try to know
That you're the good so we can show
Just take the time
So we will know just what we like
The time it takes
