Lurking in the shadows of madness
I'm feeling like a fool in the silence
I'm waking up sideways
I'm waking up sideways

Well I'm low 'cause you're here Got it right, I'm seeing clear When it's hard to let go And I think you should know

Moving on from your eyes
Got me down, I feel alive
When you're on my mind
And I hope there's time for me to say

Lurking in the shadows of madness I'm feeling like a fool in the silence I'm waking up sideways
I'm waking up sideways

I forgot what to say
What to do when you're away
When you're up i'm down
When you're near I'll find a way to stay
