In the shadow of the thoughts Under the hidden structure of existence Arise the pure human instinct Of endless lust for conflicts

Face of divine hate Hidden in our veins Face of divine trace Follows till you die

Never let evil Look in your eye Stay sharp, before light Never returns

Before your sense gonna die Before your conscience gonna die Before your nerves overload Before the prophecy comes true

In the twilight
Religious clash, I've seen
In the twilight
Now the world's end
In the twilight
Now insane clash
In the twilight - twilight
Clash
Religious clash
Heretic's wars
Heretic's stake

The face of divine hate Hidden in our thoughts The face of divine trace The witness of the life

Never let evil Look in your eye Stay sharp, before day Turns into night

Before your sense gonna die Before your mind commits a crime Before it turns into the pain Before the prophecy comes true

Religious clash Heretic's wars Heretic's stake Never ever end Stakes in the flames Religious clash
