

I Remember

Kataklysm

From the light that blinds my eyes
The fire burns inside
From the memories of
Looking into your eyes
I felt your pain
The sadness of your soul
A life of broken dreams
A heart of gold
I can believe...
I remember
Like it was yesterday
I remember
I saw you slipping away
I remember
Like it was yesterday
Your blood flows through mine
I'm part of you
That will never die
The tears in your face
The tears in mine
It will never be the same
But the memories remain...
