

The Darkest Days of Slumber

Kataklysm

Under a shade of darkness I rise
I'll show you things like you've never seen before
I am the reaper of death, I am the savior of man

No, I never wanted for my life to be so meaningless
Hate is so steady, so steady in my veins
This rage just keeps growing inside
It's getting harder to kill, it's getting harder to live

Sleep... In the darkest days of slumber
Wait... For the end to come

Pray for all the blood to spill
It's getting harder to breathe
It's getting harder to die
Sinners were all the same in the grips of death
You walk on water, I drown in darkness

Sleep... In the darkest days of slumber
Wait... For the end to come

Lust, gluttony, greed, sloth, wrath, envy, pride

It's the way I live
