

The Promise

Kataklysm

It's a world of confusion, everything you see is an illusion
There's no way to choose right from wrong

Everyone's opinion is pointless
Everyone's judgement is useless
Your days are numbered, your faith destruction

I don't want your poison to linger in my veins
Feel the anger within, from an ocean of hate

It's a promise in blood, walk away
It's a promise in blood, promise in blood!

Defy, let the world strike you down
Defy, take a step back, let the world strike you down

It's a brink of disaster run away, pull the plug and throw it a ll away
Let it go, puppet master... I am king and you are my slave

I don't want your poison, to linger in my veins
Feel the anger within, from an ocean of hate

It's a promise in blood... walk away
It's a promise in blood... promise in blood!

It's a promise in blood
