Ashen

Katatonia

Won't forgive your ways I strip my mind with all but scorn The scales of madness mesmerize

Voice your dead prayer

Hey You used me But I had none to confide

Under a veil of stars Where the darkness grows The pressure from the chain that you hold me in Ornament of scars And the darkness rising Over the ashen stains that I hold within

Did not forget the name I stripped my mind with all but you The scales of madness just before we die
