

Don't Tell a Soul

Katatonia

I have been destroyed
by the perfection that is life
see I'm moving soon
see my feet are already on the road

And if you know where I'm going
don't tell a soul

I live all for this thing that I heard someone sing
when you have noone

Noone can hurt you

It was so easy to see How fucking good it all could be
