

Running my way towards oblivion
Inside my head electric insomnia
In your mind I'm fed with distrust
Heading for anything better than this
I want to be forgotten
I want you to forgive
How I'm losing all this
It's just the way I live
Running my way towards oblivion
Inside my head smokescreen's gone
Leaving all this to be undone
Heading for anything better than this
Running my way towards oblivion
Outside my head only the dark
In your mind I'm the end of it all
Heading for anything better than this
