Inside the Fall

Katatonia

All noise that breaks my head I run along the water you didn't really notice I've left and gone away

You're like waiting Uncurable disease Left me waiting Inside the fall

All waves that traps my breath I should be in your sight But you didn't really notice That I've left and gone away