Onward into Battle

In the still eclipse Every light is a heartbeat In the spring Where I watch The sudden change

I find this so hard

Onward into the battle Time is growing so dark around me I, shallow one I burn us out Day by idle day

Days at the sea My words are incomplete In the blind spot Where I saw you On the 4th at night

I find this so hard

Onward into the battle Time is growing so dark around me I, shallow one I burn us out Day by idle day
