

Courage

Kate Ceberano

Sometimes I drown in my own moods
If I feel wrong or just confused
You never desert me
And if I make the wrong impression
If Ive mistaken your intention
You know I didn't mean to
When I get dark and overcome
You humour me through till the clouds have gone
I never embarrass you

Your ways are sneaking up on me
You give me truth that I can see
Youve got some courage to love me

At times I am my worst enemy
Instead of making me wrong you hold me in your arms
You make the bed and you lie me down
You tell me stories until I am calm
You don't patronise me

Your ways are sneaking up on me
You give me truth that I can see
Youve got some courage to love me

Love me ohhhoooo
aahh hhaaa

Your ways are sneaking up on me
You give me truth that I can see
Youve got some courage to love me (5x)
