

Famous For Leaving

Kate DeAraugo

I fall in love in just one day
It's always been that way
I pull you in, spit you out
It's what I'm about
Everytime

Here I go, on my own
Sayin' goodbye again

I don't mind, bein' alone
I don't mind, fleein' from home
I don't mind, bein' alone
Hell, baby, you shooda known..
That I'm famous for leaving
It gets harder every time
Who could know I'm famous for leaving?
But it's different this time
Different this time

I like the way you frustrate me
It must be what I need
You have a way of pushin' through
Whatever I throw at you
Anytime

Here I go, on my own
Sayin' goodbye again

I don't mind, bein' alone
I don't mind, fleein' from home
I don't mind, bein' alone
Hell, baby, you shooda known..
That I'm famous for leaving
It gets harder every time
You know I'm famous for leaving
But it's different this time

So right
You are, so right
It's gonna be alright, alright
So right
It's gonna be alright

Here I go, here I go
Here I go again

I don't mind, bein' alone
I don't mind, fleein' from home
I don't mind, bein' alone
Hell, baby, you shooda known..
That I'm famous for leaving
Heyyy..

I don't mind, bein' alone
I don't mind, fleein' from home
Hell, baby, you shooda known..

That I'm famous for leaving
You know I'm famous for leaving
But it's different this time
But it's different this time

I don't mind
Here I go again
