

Victim

Kate DeAraugo

See the girly in the corner over there?
She's a freak show, betcha didn't know
See the way she likes to flick her long blonde hair
And her eyes bat, her momma told her that

She's got a little box of secrets she won't share
Unless you love her, say you love her
Say you love her
Like how she keeps so thin and why she's always scared
Why she cries, why she tells so many lies

She don't wanna be anywhere else
If she did she'd (Go)
But it's all she (Knows)
She's a victim
Lovin' and hatin' herself
Likes to over (dose)
Ain't no big thing, she's a victim

She's a victim

See the cute boy in the other corner?
She's gonna zero in, make a mess of him
In a year he's gonna cry, she's so unfair
How she hurt him, how she worked him

He's a liar, 'cause he knew it all along
It's not the first time, just the worst time
He won't admit the fact that victims turn him on Daddy please, won't you come and rescue me?

She don't wanna be anywhere else
If she did she'd (Go)
But it's all she (Knows)
She's a victim
Lovin' and hatin' herself
Likes to over (Do)
Ain't no big thing, she's a victim

She's so pretty and, hard to understand
Ain't it perfect that she cannot be without a man?
This ain't just a fad
You should see it's such a rush, when they touch
They both all hurt so much

All she really wants deep down is to be loved
But lovin' her's never enough

She don't wanna be anywhere else
If she did she'd (Go)
But it's all she (Knows)
She's a victim
Lovin' and hatin' herself
Likes to over (Do)
Ain't no big thing, she's a victim

She don't wanna be anywhere else

If she did she'd (Go)
But it's all she (Knows)
She's a victim
Lovin' and hatin' herself
Likes to over (Do)
She's just kicked him, now she's flicked him
Guess she tricked him, she's a victim
