

Someone To Love

Kate Earl

You're a porcelain doll that sits in a window
You hold your breath when people walk by Safely kept behind rose-colored glass
Neatly tucked beneath the spotlight

Waiting for someone to love

You're a Cheshire cat
You think a smile hides the rest
Ambiguity will always cover the facts
Where do you come from, where do you go
Must be lonely to be all alone

Waiting for someone to love

And when they come, they'll accept you just the way you are You'll swear under a moonlit sky about rocks in the sky
Trees backed up by the sea
Thin wild mercury

Until then, you're waiting for someone to love
