

Beautiful Darling

Kate Miller-Heidke

In the morning, the imprint of your body on my sheets
Comfort and pain and peace
You made me remember what's it's like to feel something
I don't think I'll ever forget again

'Cause we got high hopes, high hopes, high...

Beautiful darling, you make me believe
It could all be okay, hope is a real thing
Beautiful darling, believing in us
A cure for sadness, we'll stare down the dark
At home in your heart, my beautiful darling

Stay with me, I don't want to lose you again
I don't want to leave anything unsaid
I'm done staring at your number in my phone
When the sun comes up, I don't want to be alone

'Cause we got high hopes, high hopes, high...

Beautiful darling, you make me believe
It could all be okay, hope is a real thing
Beautiful darling, believing in us
A cure for sadness, we'll stare down the dark
At home in your heart, my beautiful darling

My beautiful darling, my beautiful darling

Beautiful darling, believing in us
A cure for sadness, we'll stare down the dark
Beautiful darling, you make me believe
It could all be okay, hope is a real thing
Beautiful darling, believing in us
A cure for sadness, we'll stare down the dark
At home in your heart, my beautiful darling
