

Four Stars

Kate Rusby

Out of time and run aground now.
Into the line is where I'm bound now.
I dreamt a ship came in.
It was loaded down with things for you,
and all around is blue.
Blue, blue skies,
all around is blue.

Out of sight but on my mind now.
I'll make the light and make the time now.
I dreamt a ship came in.
It was loaded down with things for two,
and all around is blue.
Blue, blue skies,
all around is blue.

Hearts are won we'll climb aboard now.
It storms they come they'll be ignored now.
Four friends set sail tonight,
for stars are shining bright and true
and all around is blue.
Blue, blue sea,
all around is blue.

As far as I can see,
all around is you,
and me,
and three,
and four,
and many, many more...
