

Ghost

Kate Rusby

Oh dear, my heart is taken
From my chest
Oh dear, my heart is taken
I can never rest

By the moon
I can feel your hear beating
By the moon
I can hear you call

Here in the dark
My love wanders on
When the cruel morning comes
Then again he's gone gone gone gone

Brave though the stars they make me
I can't breathe
Brave though the stars they make me
I can never leave

By the moon
Where you walk, I can follow
By the moon
I can hear you call

Here in the dark
My love wanders on
When the cruel morning comes
Then again he's gone gone gone gone

When all the world that sleeps
The moon plays host
When all the world that sleeps
Then I see your ghost

By the moon
There, your pale lips, they haunt me
By the moon
In your tender arms, they dance me
By the moon
They can hear you call

Here in the dark
My love wanders on
When the cruel morning comes
Then again he's

Here in the dark
My love wanders off
When the cruel morning comes
Then again he's

Here in the dark
My love wanders off
When the cruel morning comes
Then again he's gone gone gone gone
Gone gone gone gone

Gone gone gone gone

Here in the dark
My love wanders on
Here in the dark
My love wanders on
