

Not Me

Kate Rusby

Rain in my head it is falling down.
There's blue up above, I'm not listening now.

Live moves so quickly.
You could drown here drown.
Live moves so quickly.
You could drown down here.
But not me, not me.

The church bells ring, I can hear them loud.
From deep within, I can hear their sound.

Live moves so quickly.
You could drown here drown.
Live moves so quickly.
You could drown down here.
But not me, not me.

And I dont know, if I'm right or wrong here.
At least I know now, that I belong here.

Live moves so quickly.
You could drown here drown.
Live moves so quickly.
You could drown down here.
But not me, not me.

Rain in my head it is falling down.
There's blue up above, I'm not listening now.

Live moves so quickly.
You could drown here drown.
Live moves so quickly.
You could drown down here.
But not me, not me.
But not me, not me.
