

Head Down

Kate Ryan

Don't put your head down when I'm smiling
Your head down when you walk away
Head down 'cause I am trying
To ask you, if you want to stay...

Don't put your head down when I'm crying
If I want to hold you, then you walk away
I know why, 'cause you're lying
About all the stupid things you say...

My heart is crying again, full of tears
Are you gonna leave me again, after all these years
Please hold me don't walk away
'Cause I just want you to say
That I wanna love you, for just one day

Don't put your head down,
When I ask you why you always run away
Your head down 'cause I've tried to,
Find out why you have nothing to say...

Your head down when you're lying
If I want to hug you, then you walk away
I know why, 'cause you're not trying
To love me only for one day...

My heart is crying again, full of tears
Are you gonna leave me again, after all these years
Please hold me don't walk away
'Cause I just want you to say
That I wanna love you, for just one day

Can't you tell me why you put your head down
Why you're always pushing me away
Can't you tell me why you put your head down
Why you're always pushing me away

My heart is crying again, full of tears
Are you gonna leave me again, after all these years
Please hold me don't walk away
'Cause I just want you to say
That I wanna love you, for just one day

My heart is crying again, full of tears
Are you gonna leave me again, after all these years
Please hold me don't walk away
'Cause I just want you to say
That I wanna love you, for just one day
