

Not the Only One

Kate Voegele

I see you throwing your hands up
Putting your head down, letting the air out
I see you're burning that bridge now
Wishing you'd turn round, I'm not the only one

You gotta know, gotta know tonight
You gotta know, gotta know tonight
You gotta know, gotta know, gotta know, that I

I'm someone who loves you, someone who loves you
And I'm not the only one
Said, I'm someone who loves you, someone who loves you
And I'm not the only one

You're someone that I can't lose
I want what's best for you and I know the day will come
When you finally believe it
You'll look up and see that I'm not the only one

You gotta know, gotta know tonight
You gotta know, gotta know tonight
You gotta know, gotta know, gotta know, that I

I'm someone who loves you, someone who loves you
And I'm not the only one
Yeah, I'm someone who loves you, someone who loves you
And I'm not the only one

We're in this thing together

I'm someone who loves you, someone who loves you
And I'm not the only one
I'm someone who loves you, someone who loves you
And I'm not the only one, I'm not the only one
