

You Can't Break a Broken Heart

Kate Voegele

Won't be so easy
This time to hurt me
You can try

This time, oh baby, there are no tears left here to cry,
If you think you can wound me like before,
If you think you can do that anymore,

Won't get too far, No

You can't break a broken heart
so try your best now, baby
try your best to break me
you can't break a broken heart

No damage you can do now,
I'm immune to you now,
You can't break what broke apart

There's nothing you can do to me no more
You can't break a broken heart

Hurt me before now, won't hurt no more now,
not this time
but you might do better messin' with someone else's mind

Cuz You're not gunna to break me down again, you're done with doin me the way you did it's gone too far, yeah

You can't break a broken heart
so try your best now baby
try your best to break me
you can't break a broken heart

I'm immune to you now

so don't waste your time your time has come and gone What're you here for, you can't hurt me anymore

no damage you can do now,
I'm immune to you now,
You can't break what broke apart
