

Sullen

Kate Walsh

All that you wanted
You won't aspire to be like me
And I'll never fake it
You can't escape from where I've been

But I'll make you see
And I'll make you believe
And I'll twist inside your mind

This business of sleeping
I can't conceive this selling state
All that you're feeling
I'll make you feel it lying awake at night
I did that

So I'll make you see
And I'll make you believe
Yeah, I'll twist inside your mind

Yeah, I'll make you see
And I'll make you believe
And I'll twist inside your mind

I only wish that you could play inside this cage
Do you know?
