

Round Your Little Finger

Katharine McPhee

Memories
They confine me
It gets lonely

My heartbeats
Echo slowly
Come and find me

Find the weight in believing
Finding faith down below

Forget me not
My sweetheart

Tie me round your little finger
We have one shot
Your sweetest arms
They tie you round my little finger
And you were meant for me
For my twin melody

You sung my song and now it lingers
And you were meant for me
For my twin melody
You sung my song and how it lingers

Distillation of relations
Keeps me sated
But I worry
You ain't coming
You're awaiting

Find a weight in believing
Finding faith down below

Forget me not
Oh, my sweetheart

Tie me round your little finger
We have one shot
Your sweetest arms
They tie you round my little finger

And you were meant for me
My twin melody
From my song and here I sing it
And you were meant for me
My twin melody
You are my song and how it lingers

Na, na, na, na
Yeah
Mmmmm

I don't know much
And you don't know much
About me

I'm never known love
Like the love that this love
Has turned out to be

Forget me not
My sweetheart

Tie me round your little finger
We have one shot
Your sweetest arms
They tie you round my little finger
