Break It to My Heart

Katherine Jenkins

If it's OK, I'll leave the bed-light on And place your water glass where it belongs And if it's alright, I'll lie awake at night Pretending I am curled up at your side See I'm circling in these patterns Living out of memories I'm still a long way from accepting it That there's just no you and me

But if I still believe you love me Maybe I'll survive So I tell myself you're coming home Like you've done a million times And if it's alright, I'll still be loving you Cause I can't break it to my heart

Is it just me, did I commit a crime? I won't believe that loving you is just a waste of time Was it in my head Reading into things you never said Cause I still don't have the answers To why we couldn't work it out I wanna think it's something that I did So I can turn it back around

But if I still believe you love me Maybe I'll survive So I tell myself you're coming home Like you've done a million times And if it's alright, I'll still be loving you Cause I can't break it to my heart

I wanna convince myself, we're perfect in every single way As long as I can keep the truth away from my heart Ooh, cause I can't break it to my heart Oooohhh Cause I still don't have the answers To why we couldn't work it out I wanna think it's something that I did So I can turn it back around

But if I still believe you love me Maybe I'll survive So I tell myself you're coming home Like you've done a million times And if it's alright, I'll still be loving you And if it's alright, I'll still be loving you Cause I can't break it to my heart I can't break it to my heart
