

What Am I Doing Here?

Kathryn Williams

What am i doing here
When i was brought in the world
Through blood and tears

How will it end
How will it end

I'm not trying to be melodramatic
I try hard to think what I'm going to say
'Cause i want to keep the friends that I've got
Well i think i do anyway

How will it end
How will it end

I can't think of good things
When they happen
I wait for the shit to come
And i love you one and all
One and all

What am i doing here
When i was brought in the world
Through blood and tears

How will it end
How will it end

I'm going to stop being scared
Of what happens when i say what I think
I'm gonna stand up and be brave about it
Look who i am I've got a brain
I've got a thought between these ears
Feelings between eyes
You want to see
And i am no pig with it's trotters on your plate
To come and cut into and salivate into

What am i doing here
I was brought in this world through blood and tears
How will it end
How will it end
How will it end
How will it end
How will it end
