

All Roads To The River

Kathy Mattea

I am master and slave
I am sunlight and shadow
I am all roads to the river
I am lost, I am saved
I am beloved and betrayed
I am all roads to the river

And the river runs wide
And the river runs deep
And I spit in the eye of safe company
Gonna dive right down to the undertow
Cause the deeper I drown, the higher I go

I am whispering dreams
I am howling revolution
I am all roads to the river
I am valentine sweet
I am every mother's nightmare
I am all roads to the river

I dream of still waters
Silent and deep
I run for the thunder
That'll drown my fear
