

I'm Alright

Kathy Mattea

After all was said and done
There was nothin' left to do
The hardest mile I ever walked
Was the one I walked away from you

Maybe I'm a little ragged around the edges
And I've been keepin' a little more to myself these days

But I'm alright
Shot down but I'm still standing, yeah
I'm alright
A little banged up from the fall

Well, I'm alright
Still shaky from the landing, yeah
I'm alright
After all

You know, it's really not that bad
No matter, how bad it might feel
'Cause there ain't nothin' time won't fix
And this ain't nothin' that some time won't heal

So maybe I've been walkin' a little wounded
Move a little bit slower now but that's okay

'Cause I'm alright
Shot down but I'm still standing, yeah
I'm alright
A little banged up from the fall

Well, I'm alright
Still shaky from the landing, yeah
I'm alright
After all

Every now and then I think about you
Oh, every now and then I cross the line

I'm alright
Shot down and I'm still standin', yeah
I'm alright
A little banged up from the fall

Well, I'm alright
Still shaky from the landin', yeah
I'm alright
After all, after all

Oh, I'm alright
Ooh, I'm alright
